SEDS Italy

THE ASSOCIATION

SEDS Italy is the Italian national federation of students and their affiliated associations working towards the advancement, growth, and widespread sharing of information, research, and training in the realm of space exploration, knowledge, and utilization.

OUR MISSION

Increase awareness of the space industry among university students

Organize educational and informative events

Promote projects through which students can put their knowledge into practice

Partner with industry to offer career opportunities to our members

Collaborate with academia, companies and associations to enrich our community of national and international students passionate about space

OUR DELEGATIONS

SEDS Italy's members are enthusiastic and dynamic university students with diverse backgrounds, all united by their strong passion for the space sector. As of July 2023, SEDS Italy count 12 delegations and 800 members.

This year's SEDS Italy Space Conference will be organized in collaboration with SEDS UPO, under the patronage of Università del Piemonte Orientale.

SEDS UPO

Among SEDS Italy's university delegations, SEDS UPO was founded at the Università del Piemonte Orientale, in Novara. Its goal is to make UniUPO an academic reality of excellence in the field of economics, law and STEAM subjects within the space sector. Moreover, they aim to fill the gap between industry and academia by giving their students the chance to directly interact with companies..

This year SISC 23 will be organized in collaboration with SEDS UPO, and the Università del Piemonte Orientale.

SISC SEDS Italy Space Conference

The SEDS Italy Space Conference (SISC) is the main annual national event organized by SEDS Italy in collaboration with its delegations. SISC is an opportunity for the delegates to engage with major players in the space sector, discuss current challenges and opportunities, and consider the prospects and future goals of space exploration.
